

SHILOH

Grant Harvey & Ava Richards
US History 8, Class of 2022
2nd Period

SHILOH SUMMARY

BY MID-FEBRUARY 1862, THE UNION HAD WON DECISIVE VICTORIES IN THE WEST AT MILL SPRINGS, KENTUCKY, FORTS HENRY, AND DONNELLSON IN TENNESSEE. THIS OPENED A WAY FOR INVASION UP TENNESSEE RIVER TO SEVER RAIL COMMUNICATIONS, SO ULYSSES S. GRANT MOVED HIS TROOPS UP, AND CALLED IN REINFORCEMENTS.

CONFEDERATE GENERAL ALBERT SIDNEY JOHNSTON KNEW OF GRANT'S POSITION, AND THAT GRANT CALLED IN REINFORCEMENTS. JOHNSTON PLANNED AN ATTACK FOR APRIL 3RD. LUCKY FOR GRANT IT STORMED FOR THE NEXT 3 DAYS CAUSING JOHNSTON'S ATTACK TO BE DRAWN OUT TO APRIL 6TH. AT NIGHT ON APRIL 6TH, JOHNSTON'S SOLDIERS RUSHED THROUGH FOREST AND OTHER ROUGH TERRAIN, AND SNEAK ATTACKED GRANT FORCING HIM TO RETREAT. JOHNSTON KEPT PUSHING, AND GRANT'S SOLDIERS COULDN'T GET STABLE GROUND, SO THEY KEPT RETREATING. WHILE THEY RETREATED THEY TRAVELLED THROUGH SHILOH HILL, SHILOH CHURCH, PEACH ORCHARD, WATER OAKS POND, THE IMPENETRABLE OAK THICKET, AND LASTLY PITTSBURG LANDING. GRANT PUT UP A FINAL DEFENSE AT PITTSBURG LANDING BECAUSE HE NOTICED THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS WERE BECOMING DISORGANIZED. IN THAT FINAL DEFENSE, JOHNSTON WAS HIT IN THE LEG BY A STRAY UNION BULLET AND HE BLED TO DEATH. THE DAY ENDED, OVERNIGHT GRANT'S REINFORCEMENTS ARRIVED, AND A NEW GENERAL TOOK OVER FOR JOHNSTON, P.G.T. BEAUREGARD. AS THE DAY CAME, BEAUREGARD WENT FOR AN ATTACK, BUT INSTEAD GRANT NOW NUMBERING THEM ALMOST 2 TO 1 CHARGED IN AND FORCED THE CONFEDERATES BACK. THE CONFEDERATES RETREATED FARTHER UP THE RAIL WAY TO CORINTH, AND GRANT TOOK BACK THE LAND HE LOST. THE WAR OVERALL ENDED WITH A SHARED DEATH COUNT OF ABOUT 23,746.

BY MID-FEBRUARY 1862, THE UNION HAD WON DECISIVE VICTORIES IN THE WEST AT MILL SPRINGS, KENTUCKY, FORTS HENRY, AND DONELSON. THIS OPENED A WAY FOR INVASION UP THE TENNESSEE RIVER TO SEVER CONFEDERATE RAIL COMMUNICATIONS. CONFEDERATE GENERAL ALBERT SIDNEY JOHNSTON KNEW OF GRANTS POSITION AND OF INCOMING REINFORCEMENTS. JOHNSTON PLANNED AN ATTACK FOR APRIL 3RD.

A HEAVY STORM
TOOK PLACE THE NEXT
FEW DAYS, STOPPING
JOHNSTON'S ATTACK
FOR THE TIME.

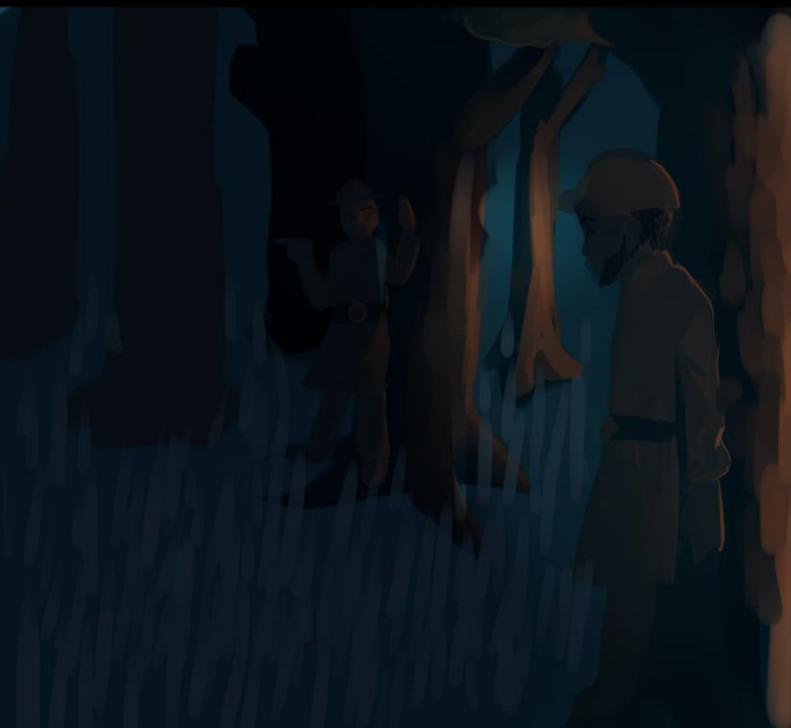

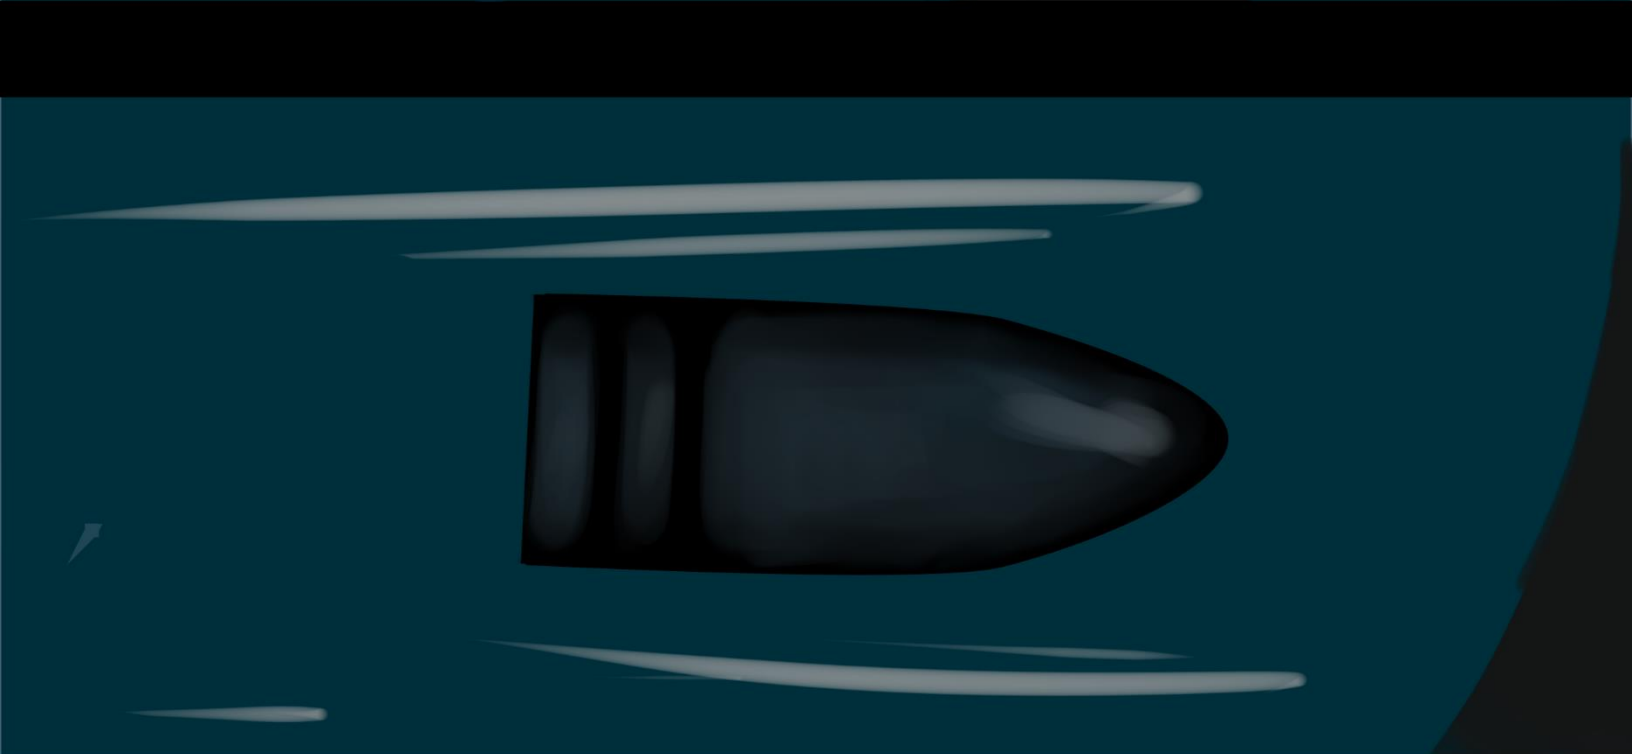

AFFIRMATIVE

WE'RE LOOKING FOR SIGNS OF OCCUPANCY CORRECT?

WELL THERE'S SMOKE COMING FROM THOSE TREES OUT THERE.

MY GOD, I THINK IT'S
THEM. WE'LL ATTACK
WHEN THIS DARN
STORM CLEARS.

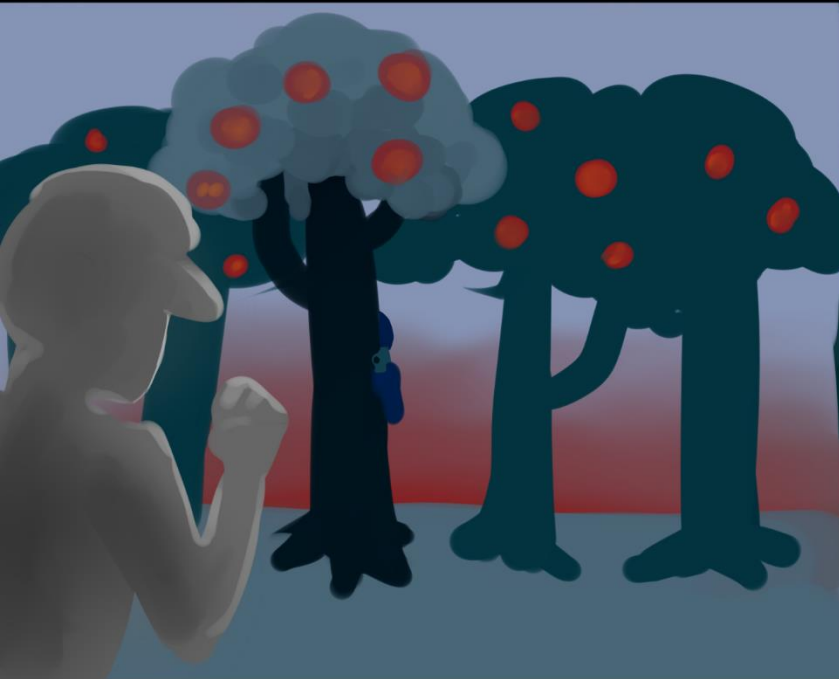

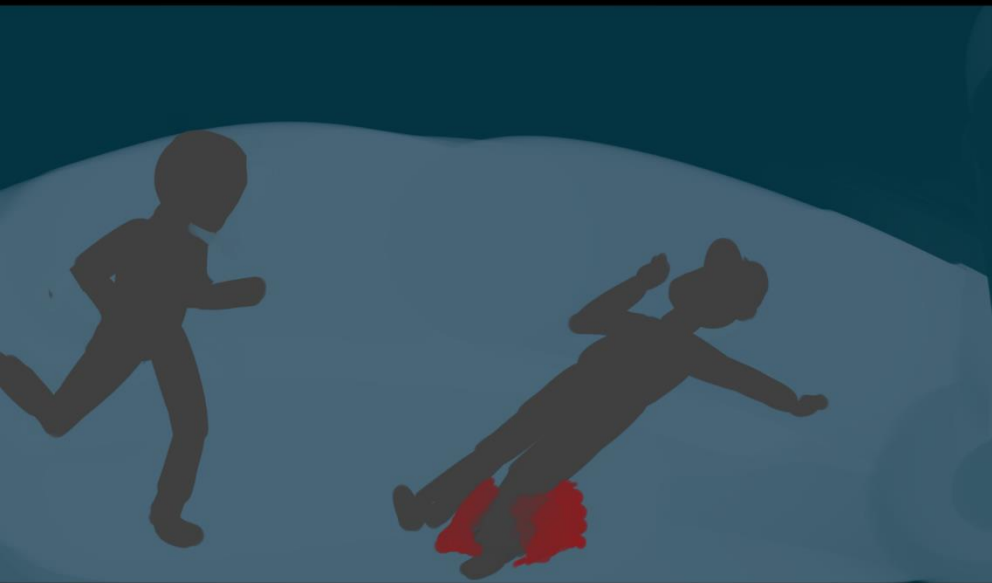

THE UNION KEPT RETREATING
GOING THROUGH SHILOH
HILL, SHILOH CHURCH,
PEACH ORCHARD, WATER
OAKS POND, THE
IMPENETRABLE OAK THICKET, AND LASTLY, PITTSBURG LANDING.

THEY ARE GETTING DISORGANIZED,
JUST HOLD OUT A LITTLE LONGER.

AFTER THE DEATH OF THE CONFEDERATE GENERAL ALBERT SIDNEY JOHNSTON, A NEW COMMANDER NAMED P.G.T. BEAUREGARD TOOK COMMAND. THE FIRST DAY ENDED WITH LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES, BUT THROUGH THE NIGHT UNION REINFORCEMENTS ARRIVED TO AID GRANT IN GETTING HIS LAND BACK.

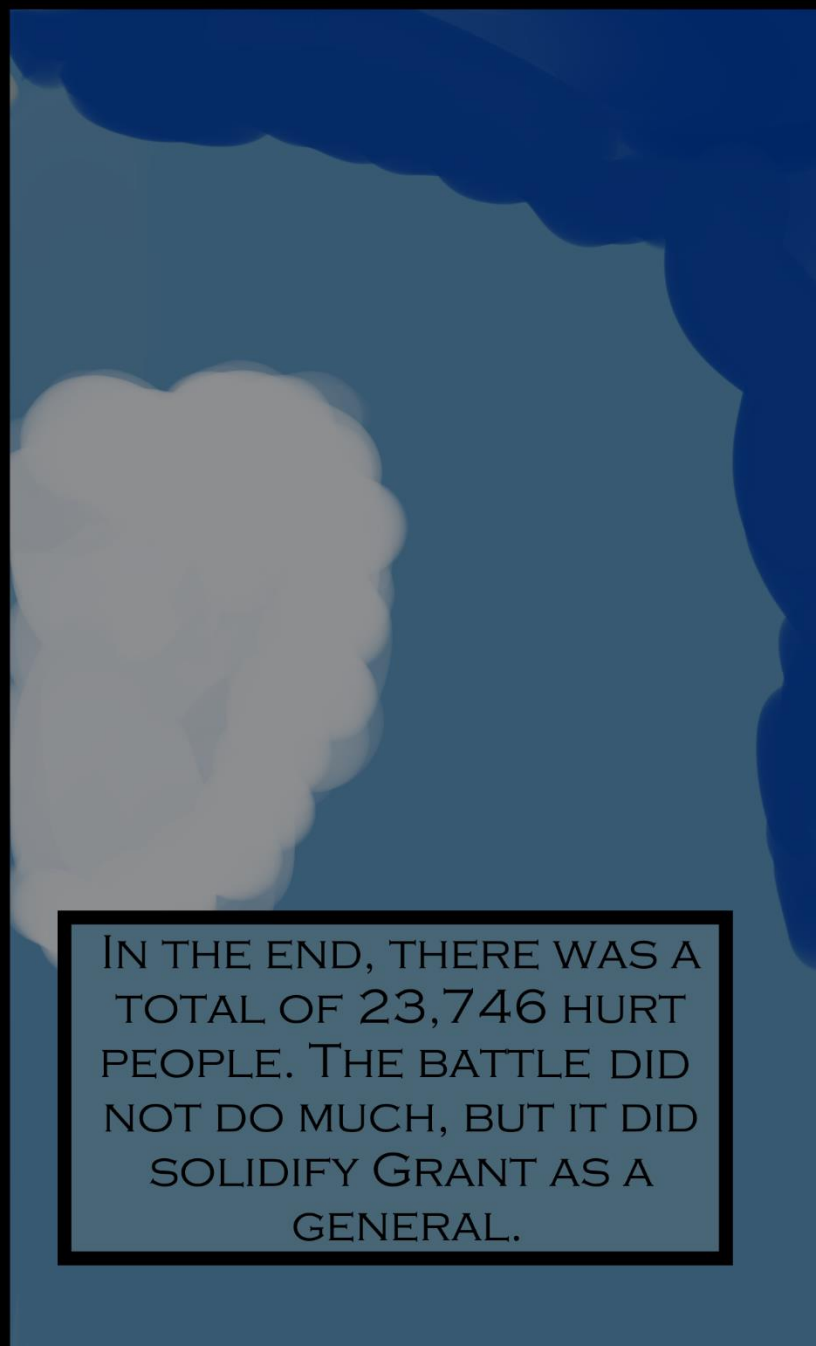

CONFEDERATES

THE UNION IS A
GROUP OF WEAK
SKUM... SO WE'LL
ATTACK AT MORNING

WE OUTNUMBER THOSE
CONFEDERATES 2 TO 1,
SO TOMORROW COME,
WE WILL NO LONGER
DEFEND, BUT ATTACK.
WE CANT LOSE!

UNION

IN THE END, THERE WAS A
TOTAL OF 23,746 HURT
PEOPLE. THE BATTLE DID
NOT DO MUCH, BUT IT DID
SOLIDIFY GRANT AS A GENERAL.

